Fear

There are pathways in our bedroom where secret people tread.

There are footprints in our bedroom grey as plumber's lead.

There are sniffles in the bedclothes, there are rustles on the floor, shadows on the ceiling, footsteps by the door.

There are noises in the garden, there is coldness in the air, secrets in the cupboard, a stranger in the chair...

there are whispers
there are whispers
there are whispers
moving near...

and I'm glad I'm with my brother I'm glad that Roger's here.
